Key Stage 4 Awards (for the academic year 2021-2022)

School Writer of the Year Olivia Yates

A fantastic student who mastered the demands of both English Language and English Literature at GCSE. A perceptive reader of texts able to produce written work of the very highest standard.

School Historian of the Year Aggie Worth

Hardworking, diligent student with a flair for History. Aggie is now excelling at A Level.

School Mathematician of the Year Boris Holliday

Boris is a talented mathematician who impresses all those around him. His natural aptitude is complemented by his outstanding effort and drive to do well. He fully deserves this commendation!

School Scientist of the Year Lily Marsden

Fantastic work ethic throughout GCSE supported by real resilience throughout home learning.

School Musician of the Year Declan Lloyd

Positive attitude and great resilience. We could always expect something special when he performed!

School Geographer of the Year Grace Critchlow

A talented and inquisitive geographer. She is keen to develop her knowledge and understanding of the world and asks thoughtful questions during lessons. She was a pleasure to teach throughout GCSE and continues to be so at A Level.

School Philosophy & Ethics Student of the Year Elyse Marling

Impressive enthusiasm and engagement in Philosophy, including evidence of reading beyond the limits of the course and the application of this to what we are studying. Elyse also helps with Y9 lessons, demonstrating further commitment to the subject and to her own personal development.

School Linguist of the Year Grace Munro

Wonderful linguist, beautiful Spanish accent, hardworking, determined to always improve and excel in the subject. A real lover of languages and different cultures.

School Technologist of the Year - Food Chloe Fletcher

A hardworking, talented young lady who always gives her best and is a pleasure to have in the class.

School Business Studies Student of the Year Isabella Moss

For achieving an excellent grade after two years of hard work, dedication and resilience. A pleasure to teach!

School Computer Science Student of the Year Esther Buston

An outstanding student in every way; studious, hardworking and willing to read around the subject and program to an amazing level. All of which meant she gained a level 9 in her GCSE!

School I-Media Student of the Year Milo Beeson

Worked so hard in all three coursework projects. Despite some of the elements of the theory work being incredibly challenging, Milo was willing to put the effort in to reap the rewards!

School Artist of the Year Emma-Jane Eltringham

An incredible set of work; Emma studied a variety of topics and media at GCSE and showed an exceptional ability in each area of the course. Emma's artistic skills are some of the highest we have seen at this level, and we were specifically impressed with her approach to working in oils towards the end of the year.

School Psychology Student of the Year Molly Dewberry

For her genuine passion for psychology and outstanding performance on both GCSE papers.

School Sportsperson of the Year Sienna Redfern

A consistently positive attitude to learning throughout KS3/4 in PE. She worked hard as an individual and is a great team player. Furthermore, she fully committed to extra-curricular activities, representing school teams in football, rounders etc and also supported the work of the PE team as a Sports Leader.

Dustan Salver for Service to the Community Esther Buston

For creating fields of poppies to raise money for the very important Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

Key Stage 5 Awards

6th Form English Language Student of the Year Scarlett Holt

Scarlett has excellent attendance, always meets deadlines and has been making steady progress since day one. Scarlett has an excellent work ethic and her teachers are very proud of her recent achievements in her NEA and mock exams, which demonstrated her detailed subject knowledge and ability to carry out an academic investigation. Well done Scarlett - we would like to reward your resilience, responsibility and quiet determination.

6th Form English Literature Student of the Year Lottie Gregory

Lottie is simply lovely! She has made great progress over the course through sheer hard work and determination. Her delightful company in the classroom has made her a super literature student of whom we are very proud.

6th Form Mathematician of the Year Gemma Rolfe

Gemma has worked at maximum effort from the very beginning, and this has never let up. She has consistently achieved the highest grades available by always asking "why?" and "what if?" She challenges those around her and her questioning has often driven the pace of our lessons. She has also been a sixth form representative in the maths department to younger students in KS3 by volunteering to support in lessons and raise aspirations. She has set a wonderful example and we thank her!

6th Form Further Mathematician of the Year Amelie Brito

Amelie seeks to understand the ins and outs of the courses she studies. She thrives on knowledge and sees beauty in the mathematical connections she makes. Amelie has a natural talent for mathematics, but it has been her hard work and consistent effort that has led to her high achievements in this most challenging and rewarding of subjects.

6th Form IT Student of the Year Ethan Gilman-Hawkes

The future prime minister or match of the day commentator! Ethan is unbelievable in every lesson, the standard of work he produces is exceptional!

6th Form Philosopher of the Year Maddie King

Clear commitment in Philosophy, including reading beyond the limits of the course, e.g. with Plato's Republic and Political Philosophy generally. Maddie has also volunteered to support the subject at important whole-school events such as sixth form and year 7 open evening demonstrating further commitment to the school, the subject and to her own personal development.

6th Form Film Student of the Year Jack Barton

Jack joined the film course part way through Y12, but this has not held him back. He has really grown in confidence this year, and is willing to share his insightful and intelligent ideas in lessons. Well done Jack - you're our 'most improved' player!

6th Form Chemist of the Year Reuben Davies

For displaying such commitment and dedication to this difficult subject. Reuben has a huge love of learning which we really admire.

6th Form Biologist of the Year Izzi Stokes

Izzi has shown real resilience at overcoming barriers and has really impressed us in Biology. Her work and thinking is always rigorous and we're sure she will thrive as an undergraduate.

6th Form Geographer of the Year Ione Murray-Blanchard

For her incredible work ethic and determination. Ione is always cheerful and was brilliant company on fieldwork.

6th Form Historian of the Year Josh Tatton

Josh is super hardworking, has shown a real resilience to improve and as a result is making fantastic progress. He is always so polite and appreciative of the support that he gets and is a pleasure to teach.

6th Form Business Studies Student of the Year Chloe Dawson

Chloe has always been resilient and reflective and has made excellent progress. She made a really positive impression at her work experience placement and her work was even published. Chloe is a real business superstar!

6th Form Psychologist of the Year Fay Eltringham

For her continued passion and commitment to the subject. Fay's attention to detail when it comes to psychology knowledge and understanding is outstanding. We can't wait to hear all about her journey into the world of neuropsychology.

6th Form Artist of the Year Skye Morten

For making massive progress over these past two years. Skye has really honed her skills and developed her confidence in working with a range of styles and media. She really deserves this nomination.

6th Form Sports Person of the Year Bobbi Lumbert

Bobbi has been the most consistent learner in her approach to A Level PE studies; she is hard-working and quietly determined – traits that will stand her in good stead for life.

6th Form Health & Social Care Student of the Year – Extended Diploma ... Trinite Blackley

Trin's work is always done very comprehensively because she goes the 'extra mile' and doesn't just settle for the basics. She always adds depth and detail to create her best work and we are impressed by this approach.

6th Form Health & Social Care Student of the Year – Extended Certificate ... Maddy Warren

Maddy's effort is outstanding; she always attempts activities and doesn't mind getting things wrong because she knows how to learn from mistakes.

6th Form French Student of the Year Miriam Buston

Elle est incroyable!

6th Form Musical Ensemble of the Year Jack Barton

Miriam Buston
Priya Seward
Sienna Redfern
Declan Lloyd

The Rotary Award for Service to the School

Amelie Brito &
Zoe Taylor

For establishing the Young Women's Group last year; for bringing important issues to the fore and offering fantastic opportunities for other young women. These two students are superb role models and our school is a richer place for having them.
