Elle Parker

For her tireless work, including making many posters, for our campaign to ban single use plastic in school.

The Dunstan Salver for Service to the Community
Sponsored by the Dunstan Family

Elyse Fanthorpe-
 Marling

For her tireless contribution to local drama groups including not only starring in but actually writing the Christmas pantomime for Buxton Drama League! Amongst her many accomplishments, Elyse is also involved in the Rec Youth Theatre, the Mad Hatters Youth Choir, Buxton Drama League Shakespeare Jukebox, the Buxton Festival Underground Theatre and has won the Young Performers Award at the Buxton Fringe.

The Well-being Champions

The Well-being Champions are a specially trained team of students who focus on supporting the new Y7 students as they transition from primary school to secondary school. This year's team were amazing. However, some team members really stood out, throwing themselves enthusiastically into the role, above and beyond what was asked of them.

Debra McDonald-Webb

The Well-being Champion Award
Sponsored by Buxton & District Lions

Haydn Smith

From this fabulous team one person stood out particularly, as he showed dedication and commitment far beyond his years. Hadyn has been quite inspirational. We are also delighted that he has agreed to continue this year as the Well-being Champion Team leader.

Well-being Champion Runners up:

Barney Buston

Jacob Parker

Matthew Rolfe
